

Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources Program

The Teaching with Primary Sources advanced workshop series focuses on the production of oral histories for instruction, learning, and community service projects.

Participants will learn to:

- Become an oral history content producer
- Lead others in the production of oral histories
- Introduce and lead oral history projects
- Use oral histories with inquiry-based learning
- Use oral histories to contribute to subject matter knowledge
- Use oral histories for community service projects

---

PARTICIPANT ELIGIBILITY

Available and Free only to all Graduates of a previous Cal U Alumni Workshop series or Graduates of past Summer Institutes

20 spaces available on a first come, first served basis

Date(s): October 6, 13, 20, 27, 2009

Place: California University of PA
EBE—Eberly Hall Room 350

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Alumni can earn up to 18 Act 48 continuing education hours

---

Please register online at:

- <http://www.cup.edu/education/aam/tpsworkshop.jsp>
- or you may email Lynne Berdar at Berdar@calu.edu or call 724-938-6025

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
TEACHING WITH
PRIMARY SOURCES

<http://www.cup.edu/education/aam>